a. Dues Begin (5 minutes)

- Membership dues are $10/person per year to cover general costs (website, agendas, etc)
- Membership dues will allow you voting rights for the calendar year.
- Membership dues are not tax deductible, but any donations are and receipts will be provided.
- ONS is a non-profit organization
- The Board does not get paid; we do it because we care about the community.

b. Residential Parking Permit (5 minutes)

- City of Atlanta Ordinance states that Summerhill is a community that has parking permits that is enforced by Park Atlanta
- The parking permits cost $20/yr. per car. It house is allowed 2 street parking permits.
- Due to parking issues during the Braves games and other Turner Field Events, this is more than likely going to be enforced this year.
- If you park on the street, even in front of your house, you will need to get a parking permit for your vehicle to avoid getting a ticket.
- We will keep you updated on whether or not this becomes effective.

c. “The Challenge” (10 minutes)-

- “One person can’t do everything, but if everyone does something then together we can accomplish our goals”
- The Board is challenging all Summerhill residents to take part in something to help better the community.
- Find something that you are interested in and get involved.
- The Board is always open to new ideas and concerns.

d. Committees (5 minutes)

- There are several committees that we could use some help on.
- Please contact the board at Board@onsummerhill.org to get involved
